Capt. Don Wykoff elected IFALPA President

Chiang Mai 11 April: Capt. Don Wykoff of the United States was elected as IFALPA's 17th President during the final Plenary Session of the Federation's 66th Conference. Capt. Wykoff, a graduate of the University of Cincinnati, flies 767s for Delta and succeeds Capt. Carlos Limon of Mexico. Capt Wykoff previously served as IFALPA's Deputy President, a role he assumed in 2010. Commenting on his election Capt. Wykoff told delegates "I stand before you humbled by your support and I'm ready to get to work with a great team".

Meanwhile, Capt. Rene de Groot of the Netherlands was elected as the Federation's Deputy President succeeding Capt. Wykoff and Canada's Capt. Rod Lypchuk was elected to the IFALPA Board as Executive Vice President Administration & Finance joining Capt. Korn Mansumitchai of Thailand who was elected as Executive Vice President Asia Pacific on Saturday.

Notes to Editors: The International Federation of Air Line Pilots' Associations represents in excess of 100,000 pilots in more than 100 countries world-wide. The mission of IFALPA is to be the global voice of airline pilots, promoting the highest level of aviation safety and security world-wide and providing services, support and representation to all of its Member Associations.
