
Global Pilots on Singapore Airlines Flight 321

MONTREAL, CANADA – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The International Federation of Air Line Pilots' Associations (IFALPA) is closely monitoring the developments related to the tragic incident involving Singapore Airlines Flight SQ-321, which was operating from London Heathrow to Singapore.

We extend our deepest condolences to the loved ones of the passenger whose life was lost. Our thoughts are also with the friends and families of the passengers and crew members that were onboard the Boeing 777-300 aircraft.

IFALPA stresses the need to avoid speculation as to what happened in the course of these events. Such Investigation should strictly follow the provisions laid out in ICAO Annex 13.

The Federation has reached out to the Air Line Pilots' Association of Singapore and will be at the disposal of the relevant Accident Investigation Agencies to help gather any pertinent information.

###

Media Contact: Emily Bitting, Senior Communications Specialist, emilybitting@ifalpa.org

Note to Editors:

The International Federation of Air Line Pilots' Associations represents more than 100,000 pilots in nearly 100 countries. The mission of IFALPA is to promote the highest level of aviation safety worldwide and to be the global advocate of the piloting profession, providing representation, services, and support to both our members and the aviation industry.